K&N PRO SERIES EAST DRIVER CHASE CABRE
VISITS THE CORNING YOUTH CENTER

CORNING, NY – August 9, 2017 – The children at the Laura Richardson Houghton Corning Youth Center received a visit last Thursday from K&N Pro Series East driver Chase Cabre. Chase, age 20, who was in town for the Finger Lakes 100 at the Glen K&N race, stopped by to visit the Center. He signed autographs, answered a lot of questions about being a race car driver, and took pictures with the children.

Chase Cabre drives the #4 car for Rev Racing and is a member of the 2017 NASCAR Next Class, an industry initiative that spotlights the best and brightest young stars in racing. Chase earned a 7th place finish in the Finger Lakes 100.
