

YES Program

Where can services be provided? In the home, community, school, and Family Service Society youth-enrichment locations, such as the Corning Youth Center, TREE of Dreams Teen Space, Bath Play /Enrichment Room, and Hornell Play /Enrichment Room.

Benefits of youth oriented site-based services: Games, crafts, puzzles, social/emotional activities, art room, kitchen and computer use for independent living skills, socialization opportunities, and much more!

Who provides services? Youth Empowerment Specialists (YES Team). Paraprofessionals and counselors who have experience in working with youth and adolescents with social, emotional, and behavioral challenges.

Are there service limitations? Services cannot be provided in a hospital setting. Services cannot overlap an Individualized Education Plan. Services cannot provide educational services such as tutoring, homework help, etc. Services cannot be provided at the same exact date and time a youth is participating in another Medicaid service, such as counseling or physical therapy. YES does not replace traditional mental health counseling.
