The Laura Richardson Houghton Corning Youth Center was founded in 1986. It offers a comprehensive program designed to enhance the lives of young people in the Corning-Painted Post School District. The center is open throughout the year. All activities and programs are FREE OF CHARGE. Any youngster between the ages of 8 and 18 is welcome to participate.

The Laura Richardson Houghton Corning Youth Center provides a safe, well-supervised environment where children can enjoy the company of their peers. Nurturing adults serve as role models and reinforce positive social behavior. All children and youth (ages 8 - 18) are welcomed into our facility where they can truly feel accepted.

The staff at the Laura Richardson Houghton Youth Center strive to celebrate youth by providing innovative programming and a safe place for youth to socialize. Their goal is to honor each youth by offering support, acceptance, and a sense of purpose.
