Family Service Society, Inc. Welcomes Rebecca Moss as Director of Program Operations

Family Service Society, Inc. is excited to announce the addition of Rebecca Moss as the agency's new Director of Program Operations. Rebecca brings a wealth of experience and a deep commitment to enhancing community services. In her new role, she will support department directors, oversee the administration of client-serving program operations, ensure quality and best practices are used across programs, and build community partnerships, all while aligning with the agency's mission and values.

Prior to joining Family Service Society, Inc., Rebecca served as the Healthy Families Program Manager of Chemung County, where she worked closely with the local DSS, OCFS and many other community partners. Rebecca's extensive career includes roles as Population Health Manager/PCMH Coordinator at Arnot Health, HIV Program Director at the AOMC-HIV Primary Care Clinic, and Human Services Lecturer at Elmira College. Her diverse background demonstrates her ability to manage complex programs, lead diverse teams, and develop effective community health initiatives.

Rebecca holds a Master of Arts in Social Science from Binghamton University and a Bachelor of Science in Health Education from the State University of New York at Cortland. She is a certified Health teacher and recently earned a certificate in Nonprofit Leadership from Corning Community College.

Rebecca's dedication to community service is evident in her involvement with several boards and committees, including the CIDS Community Advisory Board, Chemung County Child Care Council Executive Board, and the Southern Tier Regional Planning Committee.

Family Service Society, Inc. is a nonprofit human services and behavioral health organization serving individuals, children, and families across Steuben County and surrounding areas. With a mission to empower people through counseling, education, and community programs, the agency offers a range of services including mental health counseling, youth mentoring, and after-school programs. For over 106 years, Family Service Society has been committed to fostering resilience, enhancing well-being, and supporting the most vulnerable members of the community.
